

Logistics Made Easy

Your Success Is Our Success

With the world rapidly changing and flexibility at the core of necessity, more individuals are opting for the chance to own their success as a business owner. Enhance your own business and create your own success as a Miami Global Lines Global Service Provider (GSP).

What's In It For You?

Miami Global Lines is seeking experienced, motivated and established logistics entrepreneurs who are seeking new horizons and a global presence in real time.

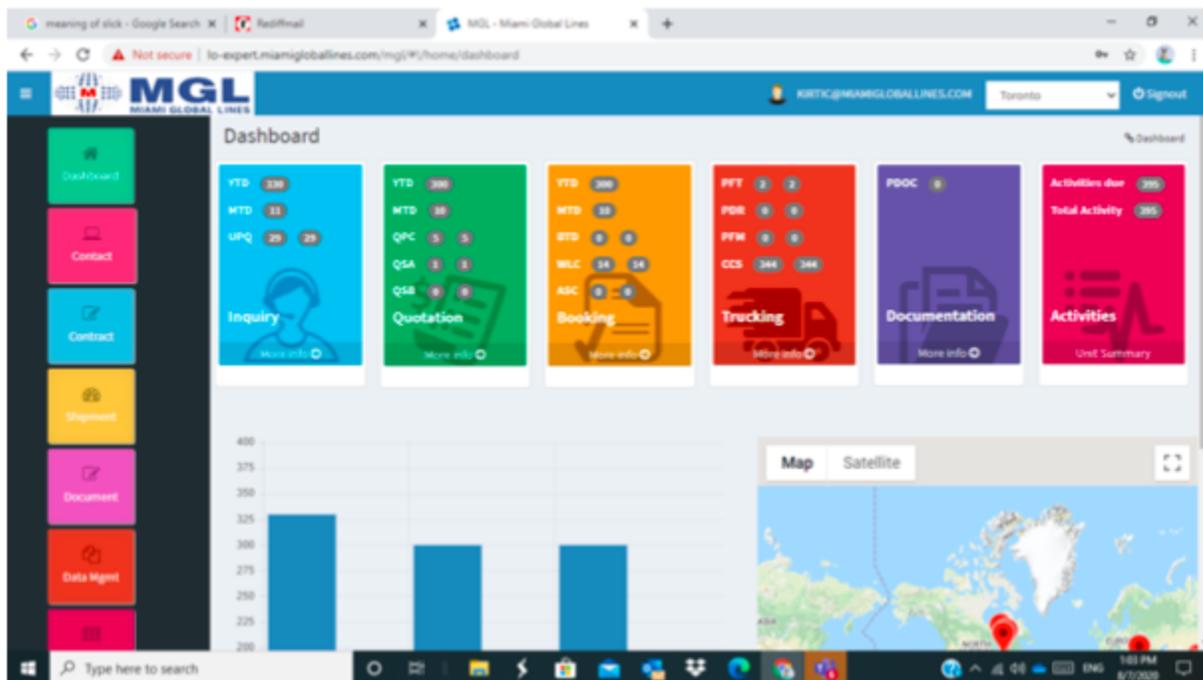

As a Global Service Provider, MGL gives you the opportunity to work in real time for the world's largest economies while operating from your own corner of the world. The U.S. and Canada offer two of the largest markets for logistics and MGL wants to give you the opportunity to become immersed in one of the most rapidly growing industries as a GSP. This opportunity is for those who are ready to take their entrepreneurial passion to the next level as a business owner in the growing and lucrative world of logistics.

Becoming Your Own Boss

Starting your own business has become that much easier with Miami Global Lines ready to guide you along the way. If you're passionate about being a leader, enjoy the flexibility of creating your own work schedule, and value the importance of strong network ties, this is an ideal opportunity for you. The ideal candidate is a self-starter, ambitious, has prior experience in the field of logistics or is already operating their very own freight company. As a Global Service Provider with MGL and a business owner, you'll have the unique opportunity to not only be connected in real time to other logistics professionals around the world, but also be responsible for managing and growing your own freight forwarding venture. As your own boss you'll have the freedom to create a business in your vision while being supported by the Miami Global Lines family and larger network of freight forwarders in the North American market and around the world.

Miami Global Lines understands the importance of time. That's why our global platform - MiApp, allows you to conduct business in real time, making it easier for you to have access to a larger network of like-minded professionals, as well as establish and grow client connections for your success. Through our Logistics Partner Program, you will be privy to our unique patent-pending software which provides a cloud based service for all your business specifics. From initial customer inquiry to complete project invoicing, our app stores all client information while keeping you organized. Our platform makes procuring business easy and efficient, while providing you with a virtually limitless market.

What It Takes

Who We're Looking For

Now that you're ready to become a GSP of Miami Global Lines you might be wondering what an ideal candidate looks like. Our team of Logistics Partners should understand Miami Global's vision for worldwide logistics efficiency and value the importance of excellent customer service. In order to succeed in this role, the ideal candidate should have prior understanding for the field of logistics and direct experience working in the general industry. Miami Global Lines is also happy to partner with existing freight forwarders and welcomes current business owners into the MGL network. The essence of an MGL Logistics Partnership is to ensure that every customer's cargo is picked up, transported and delivered to the right place and always on time in order to be successful.

A successful Miami Global Lines LP will have experience in one or more modes of transportation as offered in our services, including road, air or sea. In addition, they will know how to properly close a sale and make the appropriate accommodations to ensure all cargo is successfully delivered. Whether you have general prior experience or are already running your own freight company, becoming part of the Miami Global Lines team as a GSP will help you define success your way while broadening your network and growing your company.

What You'll Have Access To

Once you join our team of Logistics Partners, you will be welcomed into a larger network of logistics professionals, connecting you with customers and colleagues alike anywhere in the world. From the comfort of your working space, you will have open access to all shareable Miami Global Lines documents and information that will not only help you become better established at the start of your venture, but also connect you to the greater network of fellow Logistics Partners. MiApp is a cloud-based software that is exclusive to Miami Global Lines. This app will help you keep track of customer inquiries, track the progress of a sale and invoice clients directly. At Miami Global Lines we pride ourselves on efficiency and personalized service, and we make sure to fulfill that mission with clients and partners alike.

Once granted access to MiApp, you'll have convenient and easy-to-use tabs readily available for your organizational needs. In addition, Miami Global Lines representatives will always be available to answer any questions you might have throughout the process of your business. In addition, every GSP will have access to MGL's Microsoft Xchange, which will house all necessary documents to answer any questions you might have. This includes a training manual, certifications and general documents. We also provide you with a real-time, secure and reliable communications platform to facilitate effective, profitable collaboration.

How We'll Get You Started

Your role as a Logistics Partner will serve as an extension to our home office. You'll provide excellent customer service, professionally service all customer logistics inquiries and be in charge of your own customer sales. All from the comfort of your remote location.

Miami Global Lines will work with you every step of the way as you embark on your new journey as an entrepreneur and Logistics Professional. During the beginning phase of your venture, we'll partner with you directly to provide in-person training to ensure success as you launch your business, including basic day-to-day responsibilities and platform troubleshooting. Miami Global Lines will also provide English language training for all Logistics Partners. We will walk you through the specifics of the logistics industry, train you on our platform's various functions, help you obtain all necessary certifications and guide you on initial business set up.

What Are You Waiting For?

Miami Global Lines is committed to setting you up for success. We encourage every passionate self-starter to embark on their very own entrepreneurial journey and become their own boss. Become a Miami Global Logistics Partner today and enjoy the process of creating your own success.
